I.Municipalidad de Vallenar

VALLENAR

HUASCO VALLEY/ ATACAMA

VINEYARDS & WINES

Discover flavors that defy the desert. Explore Vallenar's vineyards and local producers, discover its wines, crops and local products, and enjoy an experience where the valley transforms sun and soil into flavor.

PISCO & TRADITION

Discover the spirit of the Huasco Valley. Meet local producers and explore the aromas and traditions behind pisco and pajarete, on a journey shaped by vineyards, families and desert landscapes.

HISTORIC VALLENAR

Walk through a city where history lies beneath your feet. Discover heritage, mining, fossils, museums and hidden corners that reveal the traces of ancient inhabitants and generations that shaped Vallenar's identity.

RURAL VALLENAR

Venture into a valley where traditions are still alive. Explore haciendas, farmland and rural communities; discover crops, irrigation canals, local products and stories, experiencing a way of life that has shaped the territory's identity for generations.

Upstream Route

A journey upstream along the Huasco River from Vallenar, through the green rural landscapes of La Verbena and Camarones, all the way to the Santa Juana Reservoir, combining nature, scenic landscapes, rural life, and outdoor recreational experiences.

Desert Trail

Explore Incahuasi, Cachiyuyo, Domeyko and Camarones Sur, among historic churches, mining heritage, Diaguita culture, traditional livestock farming and local flavors. Discover Orbicular Granite and breathtaking landscapes beneath Atacama's vast skies

Flowering desert

Discover how Vallenar blooms between city and desert, where the iconic Pata de Guanaco creates vibrant fuchsia carpets, while yellow Añañucas welcome travelers along Route 5 North, guiding the way toward Chehueque.

TOUR GUIDES

FLOWERING DESERT

WHERE TO STAY

WHERE TO EAT

Vallenar Vive el Desierto

Florid 2026